Wingfield Family Society numbers in this WFS Roster yet ?

You will see a variety on numbers in the WFS Membership Roster including your membership sequence or serial number, and then the year your family membership dues are now paid through.

[Family membership is by the calendar year, ending at the end of December.] Your own serial number is listed with a small w beside it. If it is 889w, that usually means that you were the 889th person or family to join the society since it started in May 1987.

You will see the letters P and E which indicate that you received P = mailed copies of the newsletter or E=emailed copies of the newsletter.

Your "dues ending" year is preceded by this symbol *. If it looks like this: *2018, it means that your family's membership dues are paid through the year 2018.

There is also a "database" number [.....] for each membership. Those numbers are partly for the convenience of our treasurer who uses the Membership Roster for varied purposes including making changes to his roster when you make any changes to your information, and when you send in your membership dues. [It could also be a reminder as to when it is almost time to send the treasurer a dues update.]

That year ending is also on your WFS Newsletter mailing label. It reads i.e. Dec 18 and is located below your name on the mailing label.

If you have a change, a correction, or a question as to your information in this Membership Roster or on your Newsletter mailing label please contact Mary E Wingfield our Wingfield Membership Director, at mewing@mitchelltelecom.net or by telephone or via regular postal mail. It is important to let us know about any mailing address changes just as soon as possible.

Arms, coat-of-arms, crest crowns, shields, heraldry, medieval knights, Order of the Garter, Order of the Bath, of the Thistle, of St. Patrick – all kinds of great information from the earliest years.

Bartholomew Gosnold and Edward Maria Wingfield recruited 40% of the Jamestown 1606-07 colonists.

W Chief of Staff of "Edward the Black Prince" was Sir John Wingfield III, who was the Lord of the Manor of Wingfield from 1326 to 1362 (36 years) at Suffolk, site of Wingfield Castle. That is near Diss, about 90 miles northeast of London. Sir John Wingfield died of the plague in 1362, so all his manors and lands devolved to his only child, a daughter, Katherine who married Michael de la Pole, placing all her inheritance into that family.

The title "Lord of the Manor"

The English title "Lord of the Manor" arose in the English medieval system of government following the Norman conquest of 1066. The title, separate from the land, remains a feudal title of dignity.

A genuine "Lordship of Manor" is backed by original legal papers and proof of continuous ownership of the title. Thus, in 1988 when the coveted title "The Lord of the Manor of Wingfield" went to auction in England, a friend of Vance Wingfield living in England heard of the auction and contacted Vance, offering to bid on the title for him if he was interested. Vance was indeed interested and authorized a maximum monetary amount that his friend could bid.

With that, Vance's friend made the highest bid, and thus Vance became the owner of the title, complete with the British legal transfer of the title to him.

Vance then gave the title to the Wingfield Family Society, with legal transfer papers. So today the Wingfield Family Society legally owns that historic title. "The Lord of the Manor of Wingfield"

The right to use the title is passed on every three years from current president to the next president of the Wingfield Family Society. Each newly elected society president is "invested" with the title in an investiture ceremony during the annual meeting, usually following the last dinner on the last evening of the 4 day weekend, which runs from Thursday to Sunday.

This is still a virtually "medieval" ceremony, complete with costumes devised by some early WFS members (including "Lords" of the society). The ceremony then concludes with the signing of the transferal documents. We then Welcome the new Lord of the Manor of Wingfield.

NOTES

in these days when most of the troubles of the world stem from broken or divided families, and when the problem of abandoned children abounds, we give thanks that we are able to meet together as the Wingfield family.

We thank you that the divisions and separations of past centuries are being bridged and that our family ties are being renewed and strengthened.

Oh Lord, may this strength of world-wide family ties continue with our Wingfield cousins and descendants and may we continue with your blessing to serve you throughout all generations. We pray as our fathers before us, in Jesus' name. Amen.
